Check us out regularly! ... stencils have existed since prehistoric time, so be patient :-) by the way, after prehistoric time, it is in China and about 3000 BC that stencils were first documented. Over Europe they were discovered at the beginning of the Middleages and used to decorate the church walls. Then there was another boom in the 17th and 18th centuries to decorate the inner walls of the premises and houses: wall paper was expensive, and therefore people could accept this technique. From Europe this technique was taken to America with the first colon ... Return from free printable stencils back to the website. Click here to visit the Green Paper packages.
